EXPLANATORY NOTES TO THE FINANCIALS

- Interest Income Increased by 18.6%
The increase in interest income of 18.6% year on year is primarily driven by the growth in loans and advances and treasury income from placement in earning assets made during the year.
- Interest Expense Increased by 37.6%
Interest expenses grew by 37.6% year on year as a result of new lines of credit from traditional and non-traditional lenders throughout the year to support our loan portfolio.
- Net Fees and Commissions Income Increased by 20.6%
The remarkable increase of 20.6% year on year in net fees and commissions income is attributed to the strategic enhancement of our trade finance transactions and the additional revenue generated from management fees on services to projects and customers.
- Net Loans and Advances Increased by 21.1%
The growth of 21.1% year to date in net loans and advances is supported by the disbursement to local transporters and on lending disbursement to local banks.
- Gross Borrowings decreased by 7.2%
The decrease of 7.2% to date is mainly attributed to transfer of government borrowing to special funds. The bank continued to adhere to all metrics of borrower's covenants.
- Share Capital Increased by 3%
The 3% year to date increase in share capital reflects the injection of additional capital by the main shareholder received during the year and the profit of the period.
